Tells a Story

Kente Cloth design patterns have special names that tell a story. These stories pass on wisdom. This specific pattern on your Sankofa Edition by ADVANSYNC stole is called Babadua, which translates to "strength". The Babadua tree, which is a strong tree used for building fences, thatch roofs and barricades during war inspires the pattern. It depicts strength, toughness and resilience. You overcame a lot to reach this milestone in your life and this pattern is placed on your kente cloth to honor your achievement.

Rich in Symbolism
