Stay Healthy with Massage Gun
Massage gun, also known as percussion massager, is a massage tool working through percussive therapy. It transmits the jolts of pressure and vibration into your deep tissue to provide you a more intense stimulation of the muscle, providing a breakthrough, natural approach to improve both of your physical and mental health.

Why Choose TT-PCA004 Massage Gun?

TaoTronics 2nd generation TT-PCA004 massage gun adopts the powerful 24V high-torque brushless motor providing high-frequency percussion, which increases blood flow to shuttle nutrients into the muscle and effectively disintegrates the lactic acid builds up during strenuous exercise as well as long sedentary hours. The deep tissue massage gun would help you relax your fascia, relieve and even prevent muscle discomforts, bringing you an incredibly therapeutic and relaxing experience.

Own a Personal Massage Therapist

TaoTronics massage gun, scientifically designed with 20 adjustable speed levels and 6 massage heads, is suitable for athletes, fitness enthusiast, office sedentary crowd, recovery crowd and the elderly. Possessing the multifunctional massage gun, everyone in your family will enjoy a targeted professional massage.

Considerate Design for You

The massage gun is ergonomically designed with an anti-slip silicone handle, which enables you to easily hold and control with one hand. You can also check at a glance the current settings on the bright LCD display and shift the speed with a gentle tap on the touch controls, which is considerate and convenient.
