Inexpensive Party Ideas

One of the most simple and inexpensive ideas you can bring to life at your next event is a balloon garland. It is an inexpensive way to add a dramatic presentation to simple spaces at an event

Different Size All In One

For the best effect and more professional finish, we include different size and color balloons in our balloon garland kit. Go all-out for your next party with a DIY balloon garland. It may look intimidating, but our easy party hack makes it a cinch to create this party decoration.

Step-By-Step Tutorial Guide

Blow up your balloons. For the best effect and more professional finish, inflate them to various sizes â€“ some small, some medium and some large. Place the knotted end of the balloons through the hole so that they are firmly attached when forming the garland. Arrange them by color and size in a creative pattern, taking inspiration from the design you chose. The dot glue tabs can be used to fill in spaces throughout your balloon garland decoration with smaller balloons or balloons of various shapes, colors, and sizes. You can skip some holes on your tape to create space for accessories like foliage, flowers, or even ribbons. This will make your garland arrangement appear beautiful and more professional-looking. (Optional) Now it's time to choose the location you want to drape your hard work. You can choose any surface depending on the type of celebration and the space you are working with.
